

VOCALIST - Lovely Rosalind Patton is the featured vocalist to appear with Elliot Lawrence tomorrow night at the Christmas Ball. She's been with the group since it was formed back in high school days.

OCP, Music Department Give Excellent Pageant

by John Schaffner

An evening of Christmas festivities, the annual University Christmas Pageant, was presented Tuesday evening at the Klein Memorial Auditorium.

First to step into the spotlight was Theresa D'Eramo, memorable for her treatment of "Soiree" in Campus Thunder, who sang, "O Holy Night."

A waltz scene, featuring Doloris Ludka with her rendition of "Season's Greetings," as well as Gil Strunk and Miss D'Eramo singing a duet, was another highlight of the show.

Al Zavadsky and Ginny Tennant led the ensemble of dancers, including Lenore Bifield, Klaire Knott, Marcia Robinson, Mildred Sepelak, Frank Brown, Roger Vars, Lorin Beresnyak, John Micka, Leo Muldoon, Cynthia Lee and Pauline Scinto, in the "Merry Christmas Waltz."

Leroy Anderson's "Waltzing Cat" was the backdrop for the "Cat and Mouse Ballet," which featured Geraldine Bennett and Yolanda Delmore as the giddy kittens, and the giddy mischievous mouse. The choreography, done by the girls, was superb.

The Music department, under the guidance of Prof. Edward Byerly, sponsored the second portion of the program. "The Hallelujah Chorus," "Susani," "Winter

Christmas Ball Tomorrow, Gets Underway At 9 P. M.

by Bobbi Crane

Music for the semi-formal Christmas Ball tomorrow night will be provided by the winner of the Billboard Magazine Campus Poll for three consecutive years and Look Magazine's "Band of the Year" — Elliot Lawrence and his orchestra.

Lawrence will conduct from the grand piano, with vocals by Rosalind Patton and Danny Riccardo.

TV Course OK'ed By State Educators

The State Department of Education has given formal recognition to the two UB television courses which appear each week day over WICC-TV, Channel 43, from 3 to 4 P. M.

The courses, "Living With Literature," with Dr. Milton Millhauser, and "Personal Adjustment in Family Living," with Dr. Abraham Knepler, received the approbation this week.

With this recognition, veterans may now receive full benefits of tele-courses through the G. I. Bill.

Special television scholarships have been made to students by the Carlson Brothers Foundation in order to help the "living-room students" pay for the tuition and conversion of their TV sets.

Lit. Bureau Aims To Improve Style

Individuals, business firms, and organizations that wish to improve their written matter, may now take advantage of the newly-formed Bureau of Copy Reading and Literary Services, Howland Hall.

Designed to correct, revise, and rewrite all forms of copy in either rough or finished form, the Bureau will offer the services of University staff members for a minimum fee of $250.

The Bureau will consider everything and anything in need of grammatical, technical, and journalistic improvement; but will not guarantee budding campus authors literary or commercial success for their "Big Story."

Requests for further information should be directed to Frank S. Wright, director of the Division of Industrial and Community Services Division.

Music Club To Sponsor Half-Hour Production

"Down in the Valley," a half-hour musical production to be sponsored by the Music Club next semester, will hold tryouts Monday at 2 P. M. in the music department.

Preliminary tryouts were held recently at which time the principal parts were selected. The judges were faculty members Harold Dart, Earl Sauerwin, students Dianne MacDougal, Howie Marks and Barbara Burhorn.

The cast for "Down in The Valley" includes a small singing and speaking chorus in which seven minor roles are required.

Tryouts included positions on the technical staff. Monday's tryouts will be for supporting roles.

Joe Cirone On All-State Grid Eleven

Joe Cirone, who was the third leading pass receiver in the nation among small colleges this year, was named to the Connecticut All-State first team by the Connecticut Sports Writers Alliance. Two Knights were selected to the second team while five others garnered honorable mention.

During the season Cirone caught 36 passes for 526 yards gained. Both of these figures erased previous UB records for ends. He gathered in three of these passes for touchdowns and set up at least five others with his glue fingered catches. Since the close of the season "Ciro" has received feelers from the pro-champion Detroit Lions and runner up Cleveland Browns.

Bobby Perez and John Anderson were the Knights named to the second string squad. Perez was the leading scorer for UB as well as the all-offense leader on the club. Anderson, in addition to being the regular center and line-backer was co-captain of the team.

Receiving honorable mention were Ray Glatkowski, Hal Trishman, Tony DiMatteo, Dave Deep and Dick Gianesello.

ALL STATE Joe Cirone

UB senior, was named to the All-State football team by the Connecticut Sports Writers Alliance over the weekend. Joe holds down the right end, and was third leading pass-receiver in the nation this season.

The Decca record artist has played at such entertainment nightspots as Hotel Statler in New York, Palladium in Hollywood, Meadowbrook in Cedar Grove, Steel Pier in Atlantic City and Convention Hall in Asbury Park, N. J.

He has also appeared in Columbia Pictures and on "We The People," "Listen to Lawrence," "Treasury Bandstand" and with the "Ilka Chase Show" over CBS radio and "Supper Club" on NBC radio.

His TV appearances have been on the "Ed Sullivan Show" on CBS, "Kate Smith Hour" on NBC and "Cavalcade of Bands" on Dumont.

A few of his more than 300 college and university appearances were at Notre Dame, Princeton, Yale, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Purdue, Penn State, Siena, Seton Hall, Syracuse, Duke, Ohio State, Harvard, VPI, Temple, Amherst, Wake Forest and Brown.

Miss Patton formerly appeared on the "Children's Hour," a program which is still broadcast on WCAU and WCAU-TV, Philadelphia. She joined the Lawrence group when he organized his band, "The Bandbustlers," while he was still in high school. She was signed as a permanent vocalist when the Lawrence aggregation became the "house band" at radio station WCAU.

In 1944, Roz enlisted in the Waves and was placed in Special Service. She spent several months entertaining at service centers along the Eastern seaboard.

After the war, Roz looked up Elliot Lawrence and re-joined his band, where today she still puts her heart in his "Heart to Heart" music.

Danny Riccardo began his singing career when he entered a neighborhood amateur contest and won first prize. After high school, he signed to sing with Lee Leonard, a local bandleader, who played dance dates in the neighborhood in Brooklyn.

Singing with Gloria Parker's All Girl Band came next. In 1945, Danny joined forces with Ina Ray Hutton's group. Four years later he heard that Elliot Lawrence needed a new vocalist, so he flew to Cincinnati from New York to audition for him. He signed with Lawrence in September, 1945 and has been with him ever since.

WHAT A MESS

The new address will soon be: Student Center and Trash Disposal Building, 200 Park Place, Bridgeport, Conn.

Let's face it. That's just what the grounds around Alumni Hall and building itself are getting to be.

It's now a battle between old newspapers and scrap paper versus cigarette butts and old scraps of note paper.

The leaves which usually adorn the grounds are covered by this debris.

We like to assume that students are not used to living in a dirty environment.

There are plenty of waste baskets and ash trays around. Why not use them?

Posters are also a big nuisance. They are indiscriminately placed all over telephone poles, trees, and even the walls of Alumni Hall. Organizations are even covering up the Alumni Hall Honor Roll with posters.

An investigation of this problem has been undertaken by Student Council. Personally, we think their hunt is foolish. We KNOW who the violators are.

Additional workers have been hired by the maintenance department. The pay for these men comes from the Alumni Hall fund. You pay the money that goes into the fund. Why not help to have it spent for better and more lasting things than paying clean-up men their salaries.

How about it?

"Now we're not going to keep score, or anything silly like that, are we?"

Like dozens of dancing lights, our new formats promise you sparkling holidays. Come in and get ready now for all the parties in your date book

Dear Editor

Hamilton Air Force Base
Hamilton, California

Hi Gang:

Boy you just don't know how much I miss the old campus. I guess UB just gets into your blood and your stuck for life. But then again you can't stay in college forever and 5 years is enough for any undergraduate.

I'm glad to see that you're still able to put out a weekly. Keep up the good work. Oh well, maybe one of these days the SCRIBE will get back to 8 and 12 page weeklies with 16 page special issues. All we need is some students and a little money.

I imagine that quite a few changes have taken place on campus since last summer. From the bits of information that float my way now and then they apparently run into the numbers. I sure was glad to hear about the TV deal.

By the way, here's a little number for the paper. William "The Weep" Desmond, star of Campus Thunder and originator of from "Alpha to Zeta" dropped in on me last week. It seems he's on his way over to Korea. So, as a true UBite, I took him on the town and showed him San Francisco.

Well that's it for now. I will quietly bow out before I'm thrown in File 13. Regards to all the staff members who were lucky enough not to run across my path.

Lots of luck, I'm always pulling for you.

Ben Raubvogel

Parties, Parties, Parties!! The holiday season always gives an added impetus for social gatherings. The sororities and fraternities (who do not need any reason for parties) are forever discussing this affair or that party; they always seem to come up with more brilliant ideas and bigger affairs.

ALPHA DELTA OMEGA's hell night party Saturday was enjoyed by everyone but the pledges... Bill Dailey did a swell job.

New ALPHA GAMMA PHI brothers were feted at an initiation party Saturday and a dinner Sunday. The AGPites who were made members are: Lenny Piero, Tim Ryan, George Stropparo, Tom McNeil, Hans Schneider and Roland Emery... congrats men.

At Mainiero's Saturday, BETA GAMMA staged a party. Hear tell 'twas a huge success. A unique Christmas party will be given by BG for the kids at the Main Street Day Nursery, Dec. 16. Joe Di Domenico will play Santa.

Formal Initiation for new KAPPA BETA RHOers was held at a private gathering Dec. 6. KBR also gave a Thanksgiving party... prexy Bob Palmquist said everyone was there except the turkey (the boys ate stuffed canary).

SIGMA LAMBDA CHI is mighty proud of their new fraternity pins... SLXers scanning the campus for females to give the pins to... The SLX song at the recent POC dance raised more than eyebrows.

The "uniforms" on the SIGMA PHI ALPHA pledges were the funniest yet... where did they dig up those cute names? The pledges, after a wild hell night last Thursday, were treated to a feast at the Pickwick.

The Winter Weekend, started at PI OMEGA CHI's Sweetheart Dance, kept POC busy. The festivities continued at a bowling party Saturday afternoon, a shipwreck party at 'Red' Krassner's that night, a bagels and lox breakfast at Sam Marks' home and the weekend finished at Bert Vines' house with cocktails... WOW!!!

THETA EPSILON will hold their last rush party Dec. 13 at Marcia Pedin's home in Fairfield. TE sends thanks to BG for the great time they had at Maniero's Friday.

The annual Christmas party for crippled children will be given by THETA SIGMA Tuesday with Bernie Palaske as "Santa Baby." Toby Strong's place will be the scene of cocktail parties before and after the Christmas Ball tomorrow night.

This column may sound like something stolen from the post, but before this basketball season really gets rolling, something has to be said about the very important matter of sportsmanship.

Student spirit has been harped on and dragged through the mud for many years and probably will be for many years to come. We feel that now is as good a time as any.

Being only a sophomore at UB, I have lived through only one basketball season, but that one showed me the worst display of sportsmanship I have ever seen. Not by the ballplayers mind you, but by the supposed fans. Most of these fans are not the same ones we have at football games, who come for only one purpose (and that's not to see the game); but are over UB'd to the point of idiocracy.

Anything that happens to the Knights is greeted with wild cheering, as it should be, but let anything go wrong. . . Some of the insults hurled at opposing players were humiliating to the school's name. They picked on anyone who was not wearing a Bridgeport uniform, using his team, his uniform, the color of his hair or weight or build to "rack" him.

No man when playing a game should be ridiculed by those people sitting in the stands. It not only shows your bad manners, but it disgraces the name of the University of Bridgeport. A prime example of the many insults used last year was the expression "Skinny Fellow" which was shouted any time an opposing player was shooting a foul shot.

How do you think you look to most ballplayers, most of you are no prize packages either. Let's cut it out and make people think we go to college. What about it?

UB Queens Lose, Tie With Queens

The University's women athletes played host to the female version from Queens College last Wednesday with the girls engaging in a field hockey match and a basketball game. The UBetts eked out a tie in the opener but were defeated 39-26 on the hardwood.

Dolores Visconti scored the only UB marker in the hockey match which found the Queens taking an early 1-0 lead when Queen put the ball past Marva DuFore, Bridgeport's All-New England goalie.

Late in the second half, Visconti, on a perfect pass from Pat Arra, batted the ball home for the tying marker.

In the nightcap, the Queens women took the Knights in tow, their first home meet since 1950. The Kaymen will be looking for their first victory since that season. Their record now stands at 0-2 on the year with losses to Brooklyn Poly and Adelphi.

Bill Piasick scored 10 points, but the aquators lost their second straight match of the season as they were downed by Adelphi 49-35 last Saturday at Long Island.

The Knights took an early lead of 14-10 after the first four events but the New Yorkers came back strong and won going away, allowing UB to win only the 400 yard freestyle relay after that.

mainly on the 17 points of Jane Passante. Trailing 26-13 at half-time, the UBetts suddenly came to life and played the visitors even, in the second half, with Ellie Persip leading the scoring parade with 15 points.

Knights Win Opener, Lose As Clinkscales Hits 1,000

by Mickey Vail

With Al Clinkscales breaking into the charmed circle of the 1,000 point club, the University of Bridgeport defeated an Alumni squad 97-62 and lost to Manhattan College 78-65. Clinkscales scored 26 points against the grads and dumped in 30 against the Jaspers to bring his total to 1,008 and join Lou Saccone, Gus Seaman and Dick LaBash in the "Grand Circle."

The Alumni game was never a contest as the Knights were never less than nine points ahead once they got rolling. Saccone was high scorer for the former UB stars with 17.

Playing against a strong Manhattan aggregation the Glinesmen went down fighting. The Jaspers built up a fast nine point lead but from there on the teams matched baskets until the final whistle.

With only two minutes of play remaining in the first half the Knights closed the gap to three points but Manhattan pulled away to lead 39-30 at halftime.

In addition to Clinkscales, Art Kleinberg, Bob Lee and Jim Davins kept the Purple and White in the ball game, Kleinberg with his outside shooting and Lee and Davins with their rebounding and ball handling.

Saturday night will find Pratt Institute at the North End Boy's Club as Bridgeport plays its third home game of the year. Last season the Glinesmen walloped the Engineers 113-73. Wednesday the Knights travel to New Rochelle, N. Y. to play Iona College.

IM Hoop Play Begins Tonight

Tonight marks the opening of the 1953-54 intramural basketball season. This promises to show some keen competition between the respective dorms and fraternities. The teams will operate from two circuits, the fraternities in one league and the dorms along with the independents in the other league. There are six teams in each league but word has come from Coach "Kay" that there are possibly two other clubs that will join the roster.

Callahan A. C., who beat Sigma Phi Alpha in the finals of the intramural football league by the margin of 7 to 6, is favored in the American League. In the National League, the race should be close between POC and SPA for the final glory.

The games are scheduled for every Monday and Thursday nights at the Knights of Columbus gymnasium.

ALONG PARK PLACE

by Andy Demotzes

Tomorrow night will see another Christmas Ball come and go at the University of Bridgeport.

This dance is one of the most popular during the school year and, as usual, the Ritz Ballroom will be the scene of festive beauty as the holiday spirit is inaugurated here at UB. As in past years, many Alumni will return to recapture some of the wonderful feeling of happiness and gaiety of years gone by.

Tuesday night at the Klein, the Office of Campus Productions presented the annual Christmas Pageant. This is another example of the many opportunities we have to enter into the true spirit of this important holiday. The Pageant was a beautiful show, revealing the talents of the music department in a fine selection of Christmas numbers.

ROMANCE DEPARTMENT. . . . From his home town comes the news that Carl "Sea Daddy" Dickman is pinned. The lucky (?) girl is Fran Haskins, a student nurse in Carl's home town. . . Nov. 28 was the day when Frank Rizzardi and Mary Donatti were married, and good luck to both of them.

All the way from Newport, Rhode Island comes word that Ellen Block's fiancé, Jerry Winters, is doing quite well for himself in the Naval Officer's Training School there.

Bill Desmond, originator of "Alpha To Zeta," is on the way to Korea, but not before he and former SCRIBE editor Ben Raubvogel had a time for themselves.

The Political Relations Forum finds itself in quite a spot because of the loss of Phil Clark. Phil was forced to leave school because of sickness in his family, and the PRF is finding it rather difficult to replace him. In addition to his work here at school, Phil was chairman of the Bills Committee for the Connecticut Interscholastic Legislature, a group that meets in Hartford once a year in the Capitol building.

The advisers of Mr. Chapman and Mr. DeLeo will meet next Saturday night at Mr. Chapman's Milford home for a social get together. The last time they did this it was a big success, and everyone is looking forward to this meeting.

Attention All Greeks. I don't mean Greek fraternity men, but real, honest-to-goodness Greeks. Pete Paspalis, of Stamford, tells me he is interested in organizing the Greek students here at UB. Pete went to NYU, and he raves about the group of Greeks at that school. Anyone who is interested can see either Pete or myself, and maybe we can get together and make something of this idea.

Although they had a difficult job, members of POC made a good choice when they elected Yolanda Delmore as "Sweetheart of POC." She really looked beautiful at the dance, and certainly deserved the title.

It seems there is a college in the mid-west that lowered its entrance requirements with a definite end in mind, not to mention a few guards and tackles.

Next time you get a chance, listen in some Saturday morning to UB's own radio program Varsity Time over WICC. "Sand" McHorter and Alberta Thompson handle the show, and do a fine job interviewing students, announcing school events, and spinning pleasant platters.

Talk about odd circumstances, did you hear what happened to the guys in Room 16 at Marina over the Thanksgiving holiday? Three of them were in automobile accidents, all of the accidents were separate, and each was in a different state.

Mark Winick was involved in an accident on his way home to Massachusetts. Randy Linthurst got his hump in New Jersey, and Tony Valentino got bumped in New York. Fortunately, Mark is in good condition, although he was in the infirmary for a short time.

GUYS AND DOLLS:

Three Men To Each Gal Stirs Co-Ed Dorm Life

by Ken Hawman

GIRLS: Are you having trouble catching a tall, dark, and handsome college man with a 1954 light blue Caddy convertible? To go a bit further, do you find it difficult to latch on to a "Man," period?

The SCRIBE has some facts, M'am—but our revelations will only make you feel worse!

According to a recent campus research project, undertaken by a guy in Alumni Hall with apparently nothing else to do, there are almost three times as many men at UB as there are girls at the present time! The percentage breakdown shows that 74% of the student body are male, while only 26% are female.

For the unlucky gals of "marrying-up" age enrolled in the day session, the situation looks desperate—for the men. Over 68% of the day students are male while 32% are the other kind. That is, there are 711 men to 330 girls.

After dark, the men outnumber the girls 80% to 20%.

There are only 279 girls enrolled in school evenings with 1175—yes, dear, I said 1175—real, alive and breathing men!

If it's any consolation to the girls going to school during the day, the majority of the men going to school evenings are broke, worn out veterans, or just plain happily married.

PAGEANT

Song," and "The Twelve Days of Christmas," were sung by the men's glee club and mixed chorus. Their songs were characterized with living pictures of the traditional tableaux of Mary and Joseph, the Three Wise Men, and Shepherds.

Three Added To Nursing Staff At Bridgeport Hospital Branch

Meta Deininger, Reva Rubin, and Grace Eckleberry have recently been added to the staff of the College of Nursing, according to Dean Martha Jayne.

Girl Wins Honors In Hockey Tourney As Best Goalkeeper

Armed with her hockey stick, goalie pads, and goalie shoes, Marva DuFore and the rest of the Connecticut Field Hockey Association team, traveled to the Northeastern Field Hockey Tournament held Nov. 14-15, at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Marva, a junior, majoring in physical education at the University of Bridgeport, left New York with the title of "All Northeast Goalie, First Team." Miss Catherine Bogan, Physical Education Instructor at the University, was chosen honorary fullback substitute.

Marva played for the Northeast team in the National Tournament held Nov. 26-29 at Hunter College, N. Y.

During the Northeast Tournament, consisting of three games, a selection committee judged the players, and tentative selections to the Northeast team were announced after the last game. Final selections were made after the Northeast-Northwest Reserve game.

The Northeast team then faced the Southeast, Philadelphia II, and New Atlantic I teams, and finished with a 1-2 record.

Board of Trustees Adds New Members; Others Re-Elected

Five new members have been added to the Board of Trustees of the University of Bridgeport, announced Alfred V. Bodine, Chairman of the Board.

The new members are: Rudolf F. Bannow, President of Bridgeport Machines, Inc.; William Carlson, President of the Carlson Foundation; Frederick E. Lacey, President of the Lacey Manufacturing Co.; Mrs. Frank Quinn, former dean of girls at Central High School; and Mrs. Lucien T. Warner, an active civic leader for many years.

Ronald A. Malony, Harry Allison Goldstein, and Isaac E. Schine were re-elected to office for the positions of vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer, respectively.
